

Corinne Cantwell Heggie

Corinne Cantwell Heggie is a principal of Heggie Wochner Law Firm LLC where she helps individuals, families, and business owner avoid asset loss, taxes, and court battles with estate and business plans. Corinne can go to probate court if a judge decides where property will be distributed. Corinne helps trustees and executors do their work when someone dies.

From 2019-2020, Corinne served as President of the Women's Bar Association of Illinois. Ms. Heggie's bar involvement includes service to the North Suburban Bar Association as Third Vice President (2016-17) and as a board member (2014-17; 2020-present). Since 2020, Ms. Heggie has been a member of DePaul University College of Law's Dean's Advisory Council. In 2020, Governor Pritzker appointed her to the Illinois DUI Cannabis Task Force.

Outside of work, Corinne enjoys spending time with her three sons and her husband and law partner John in youth sports, Boys Scouts, and ministries that support women and children in crisis through their parish, Our Lady of Perpetual Help.
