

MK Gamble

Monica-Kaye Gamble, known as MK Gamble, is an attorney and policy advocate who operates a legal practice and consulting firm in Chicago. MK's professional experience includes developing policy strategies for various principals, including the insurance industry and nonprofit organizations; serving as Chicago's Public Policy Lead for Airbnb; Legislative Liaison with the Cook County State's Attorney's Office; serving as Assistant Counsel to the Illinois House of Representatives, serving as head legal counsel to Illinois; Insurance, Housing, and Environment's Energy Committees; serving as a pharmacy prosecutor and contributing drafter of the Illinois Pharmacy Practice Act; and serving as a clinical bioethicist for Cleveland Clinic, Case Western Reserves University's Hospital, The MetroHealth System, and Northwestern Hospital Internal Review Board. MK Gamble's educational background includes: earning a J.D. from DePaul College of Law; a master's degree in bioethics from Case Western Reserve University; and bachelor's degrees in International Business, Business Law, and Marketing from Indiana University.